BREED THEATER.
"Resurrection," Powerful Russian Motion Picture.
All persons interested in literature would do well to visit the Breed theater this week, to witness the excellent portrayal of Tolstoy's famous novel, "Resurrection," in the picture by the same name. The marvelous continuity of scenes in this picture leaves but little to be desired, and the strong moral is most apparent.
A very free adaptation of "Faust," is shown in the picture of "Faust," and the excellent acting adding greatly to the success of the portrayal.
Other fine pictures are: "Hunted by Cops," "Chinese Wedding," "Instantaneous Nerve Powder," "Justice of Mercy," etc.
Miss Marion Bradley, contralto, is heard to excellent advantage in both "You'll Just Do," and the duet with Madame Morelle, "Whispering Hope."
Mr. Delaney has hit another responsive chord in the hearts of all lovers of popular songs, as he is featuring the great song success, "Don't Be an Old Maid," being obliged to repeat the chorus at each performance.
